

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE DIVISION

NETCHOICE,

Plaintiff,

v.

JONATHAN SKRMETTI, in his official capacity as the Tennessee Attorney General &
Reporter,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 3:24-cv-01191

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY

The Ninth Circuit has enjoined pending appeal the California Attorney General's enforcement of California Senate Bill 976's parental-consent requirements for minors to access personalized feeds. Dkt. 11.1, NetChoice v. Bonta, No. 25-146 (9th Cir. Jan. 28, 2025). Accordingly, parental-consent requirements for minors to access social media websites are currently enjoined nationwide—except Tennessee's similarly unconstitutional parental-consent requirement at issue in this case.

As explained in NetChoice's Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Renewed Motion for Preliminary Injunction (ECF 48), the Bonta district court initially denied NetChoice's motion for a preliminary injunction as to that law's parental-consent requirements for minors to access personalized feeds. NetChoice v. Bonta, 2024 WL 5264045, at *13 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 31, 2024).

But the Ninth Circuit's order today demonstrates that the Bonta district court erred. Applying the same "standard for preliminary injunction in district court," the Ninth Circuit "enjoined" the California Attorney General "from enforcing California Senate Bill 976 while this appeal is pending." Dkt. 11.1, NetChoice v. Bonta, No. 25-146 (9th Cir. Jan. 28, 2025).

NetChoice's members need immediate injunctive relief here, just as they did in Bonta. NetChoice respectfully asks that this Court grant its motions for a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction, ECF 8, 48, prohibiting Defendant from enforcing Tennessee House Bill 1891 against NetChoice's member.
